
 LOCATION
Salisbury, CT

 SPECS
8 acres

 DISTANCE FROM NYC
100 miles

 CATEGORIES
House

 TAGS
Deck, Eclectic Quirky, Exposed Beam, Fireplace, Living Room, Modern Contemporary, Pool Outdoor, Rustic, Stone Wall, Suburban, White Spaces, Wood Floor

Notes

Film friendly

This stone facade rustic modern style home was built in the late 1930's as an artist studio. It features wood beam vaulted ceilings, light wood floors, built-in bookcase, a large fireplace, it has northern exposure, dining room, open kitchen with soapstone counters and terra cotta tiled flooring. The bedroom wing has wood beam ceilings, cyprus and mahogany walls, skylights, fireplaces.

All rooms access the deck or back patio, and the deck overlooks the lawn and 8 acres of pine trees, hills and fields. There is a pool.

Restrictions:

All floors must be protected, booties must be worn over shoes

Areas of use determined in advance

