"Fort Hill Castle" is built at the top of Fort Hill in St. George, a 5 minute walk down the hill to the ferry and water. Fort Hill was a British fort during the revolutionary war. The fort tunnels are underneath the houses on the hill. Built in 1920 to look like a castle. Has an unusually large back yard (garden). There are views of the water from many windows and can hear fog horns at night.

Scouting required - Many more rooms not shown ie: library, green kitchen, bedroom, art studio, yellow bird room (with Moroccan cages and 6 doves), basement with a pool table and bar, 5 bathrooms, and an office. The tower room is purple with a round guest bed
