This beautiful Hillsdale home has views overlooking the Berkshire mountains and the Hudson valley, and has an open plan featuring floor to ceiling windows with mountain views from all rooms. The 4,200 square foot concrete house has a huge modern kitchen with marble and walnut counters, modern gloss white cabinets and 14 ft cocktail bar with marble top.

The dining and living rooms have 20ft ceiling and wood burning open fireplace flows out to the sunny 60 ft long deck featuring a covered outdoor dining and seating area. Upstairs has a private master wing featuring a large bathroom, dressing room, large sitting area, gas fire, study and private deck. In the guest wing are two large bedrooms, both with private full bathrooms and queens sized beds. Attached to the house is a heated double garage and a lower level media room and bedroom. The house sits on 5 wooded acres with walking trails.
