Notes

Film friendly

Beautiful old converted carriage house, manicured gardens and grounds, checkered floors, white brick walls, molding, light and bright, open living room, large kitchen, brick exterior, built-in bookcases, built in the 1800's. Huge bright dining room with French doors leading to the courtyard, 10-13 ft high ceilings (dining room 26 ft long), chandeliers, beautiful stone courtyard in center of the house, wisteria, in winter there is a glimpse of Hudson River, large master bedroom, wood beams, skylights, white brick walls, library, large bathrooms (one with black tile)

The one-acre property has access to the adjacent Crawbuckie Nature preserve. The 22-acre park offers trails with views of the Hudson River (shooting on the preserve not permitted without park permission and separate fees)

Scouting recommended - these pictures were taken prior to current owners moving into the home.
