Residence dates back to 1927. The home belonged to the Auchinchloss family, cousins of Jackie Kennedy. This three story plus basement level, 4,000 square foot colonial, had doubled in size in 1998 and renovated this past year. They reconfigured the dining room, refinished wood floors, painted and added new furnishings. The home has all new exterior cedar wood shingles, cedar shutters, a new paint job and extensive new plantings around the property.

The house includes four bedrooms, three bathrooms and one powder room, TV room, home office, kitchen and eat-in area with wood burning fireplace, two level living room with wood burning fireplace and French doors leading to a wrap around porch, dining room with double French doors to the deck, finished basement with wood burning fireplace, three car garage, circular entrance driveway plus large service driveway.

The backyard features the Silvermine River running through it with huge old trees and stone work throughout.

French doors, open, "A" framed ceiling, uneven ceilings, marble bathroom, arched windows
