20 Acres (and surrounded by State Land woods) built in traditional Polish country mountain style with modern American enhancements. Constructed in the Tatra Mountains of southern Poland, outside the town of Zakopane. The home was shipped over (96 tons) in 4 containers, reassembled and constructed in the heart of the Catskill Mountains of New York State in a tranquil valley.

Extremely unique, only one in existence in the United States. Hand carved wood beams and doors, custom iron work - railings, hinges etc, custom wood/leather furniture, custom large kitchen, enormous granite patio with large carved wood benches, custom exterior light posts, 2 bars, 2 fireplaces, large guest house (same style), car port, large barn/garage, chicken coop, man made large pond/lake, 2 streams, 20 manicured acres, gated entrance and surrounded by state land and picturesque rolling mountains.

Arched doorway, stone fireplace, slate floor
