1927 house in Ho-Ho-Kus, NJ (Between Elmwood and Edgewood), gray exterior, with wide planked siding, steep peaks, a chimney on the front face of the house, and a 2-car garage with a paver driveway. The landscape style is English cottage garden with many perennials as well as trees and bushes that look nice year-round. The inside, simple with light, open, "beach cottage" feel. Doorways between rooms are all original hand built arches with lath and plaster walls. The floors are wide-planked hardwood with a dark walnut stain. Doors are solid wood with glass doorknobs - many of them are original.
