Notes

Very film friendly

First planned community in Long Island, consist of 670 homes - perfect representation of small town America but within half an hour of Manhattan.

A Main Street (Covert Avenue), St. James Church, Long Island Rail Road Station (29 minutes from Penn Station), a Country Club with pool and grounds, a firehouse, village hall, and an elementary school.

Have two parking lots, behind the country club and across from the village hall, there is also a closed off street adjacent to Main Street for parking casting buses and equipment trucks.

Because the village is so small everything is easily accessible and at most 6 blocks from the railroad station. There are 5 different colonial home styles in the village,
