Notes

This is a museum run by state - permits to be in place for clearance

Elegant country home sitting atop a grassy hill overlooking the Hudson River and the Catskill Mountains, a fine example of a great estate built by America's financial and industrial leaders during the Gilded Age (1876 - 1917).

Fees vary according to areas of use

Permit required. Two weeks lead time.

Columns, big yard, carpet, statues, on water, arched doorways

Restrictions:

No sitting on mansion furniture - moving of mansion furniture must be done by museum staff and needs to be established prior to shoot dates (what needs to be moved and where furniture will be placed as well as rooms planning to shoot in)
