Notes

Film friendly

The private manor home is perfectly perched on the highest elevation that commands breathtaking views of the Hudson River Valley. Throughout the estate grounds are the original barns, all dating back to the 1860s.

76 acres of rolling woods, meadows, and lawns perched on the banks of the Hudson River. Direct river frontage and a private beach, accessible by beautiful stone steps.

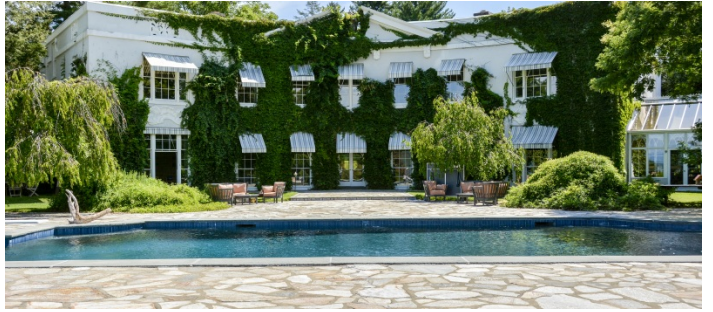

The main house includes a large kitchen adaptable to individual use or catered events, (as well as a service kitchen on the second floor) and guest rooms.

Restrictions:

Fees vary according to areas of use.
