

 LOCATION

Huntington, Long Island, NY

 SPECS

4 acres

 DISTANCE FROM NYC

39 miles

 CATEGORIES

Beach House, House

 TAGS

Backyard Lawn, Bay Window, Deck, Dock Pier, Fence, Fireplace, Historic, Kitchen, Living Room, Ocean or Bay, Pool Outdoor, Porch, Rustic, Staircase, Sun Room, Traditional, Victorian, Water View, Wood Floor

Notes

Location also referred to as East Point, which is on the National Historic Register, built 1890, Victorian mansion, four-acre waterfront peninsula, wrap-around porch, decks, on water, beach, pool, pier, two kitchens, eight working fireplaces, 24 rooms with antiques

East point is on the national historic register built 1890 by John and Hettie Green, 3 story victorian mansion on 4 acres waterfront peninsula panoramic water views and sunsets, sweeping wraparound porch with tall fluted columns, numerous verandahs and elevated decks overlooking the rolling lawn, north shore, forest like setting with max privacy, parking for camera equipment, trucks and trailers, 125 foot pier, 65 foot pool, guest cottage, two kitchens, eight working fireplaces, 24 rooms with different antiques in every room, high ceilings

White exterior, columns, wrap around porch, big yard, chandeliers, French doors, wood floors, fireplaces, white brick, crown molding, exposed brick, wood stove, wood beamed ceilings, bay windows, view of water, stained glass windows, built-in bookshelves, porch swing, pool, pier, deck

