11 stairs up from street level (driveway) modern ranch, all new construction, very much in tune with inside and outside. Wrap around deck in the back looking at a nature preserve. 4 direction of lights, full natural light. Open plan, wood burning stove, eclectic mix of modern furniture with Patina and charm. Scandinavian finished floors with soap and wood lye. Modern setting with very organic feel.

Art Studio in the lower level and another detached small room in the yard.

700 ft from the great south Bay beach, in both direction. End of a street very quiet with nature and animals around.
