Notes

1892 historic colonial revival style home on Strivers Row designed by Bruce Price and Clarence S. Luce. Fully renovated and restored interiors with handcrafted wooden spiral staircase and wood detail throughout. Tudor style library on 3rd floor completed by a famous artist during the Harlem Renaissance in the 1920s. Entire home is bathed in light throughout the day because there are windows on three sides of the building. The home is located in the middle of the block (very quiet).
