Notes

Beautifully restored brownstone on tree lined Historic Harlem block, once home to Langston Hughes. The brownstone facade has full-length windows with decorative enframements, a stone railing stoop and gargoyle overlooking the entryway.

Parlor level has 11' ceilings and hardwood Brazilian oak flooring with open plan dining room, living room, and eat-in kitchen. 9' glass doors allows north facing light to pour into the chef's kitchen which has custom cabinetry, quartz countertops and a 10' island.

Upstairs is a master bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, two other large bedrooms along with 2 bathrooms. Both bedrooms have oversized windows overlooking tree lined street and the backyard. There are 6 original decorative marble fireplace.

There is a nicely paved and landscaped back yard with exposed brick walls as well as access to a large deck. There will be a lovely roof top featuring 360 degree views expected to be finished in May 2023.
