Notes

A stunning Greek Revival home built circa 1870 retains its historic details decorated with rustic antique furniture. Two stories and multiple rooms.

It is surrounded by 100 acres of fields and woods and 7 barns of varying sizes. A wall of Spirea bushes separates the house from a paved road, and there is a long winding driveway up to the house. The property feels very private. While the house is fully modernized, it has an old fashioned aura.

Restrictions:

Requests to nail into walls or to paint walls must be approved in advance and could incur additional fee. Walls must be returned to original condition.
