Notes

This 3,200 square foot palatial paradise is inspired by the pink exterior of NYC's renowned Palazzo Chupi. Exuding glam and luxury, this grand, creative space is filled with notable art and accented with colorful finishes like gold columns, dark teal curtains and cabinetry, and pink Venetian plaster throughout.

There is a living space with a grand piano, three bedrooms, a sitting room, a full kitchen with island, a private study, and three bathrooms. Other features include thick concrete floors and heavy metal entry doors; well insulated for sound and ideal for filming and productions.

The spacious open layout, abundance of natural light, and various rooms provide a fitting space for showrooms and a creative space for meetings.
