Notes

Opulent Beaux-Arts brick and limestone mansard mansion built 1899-1902 by renowned architect Robert D. Kohn. The grand elegant primary facade features a beautiful blend of dark red brick and limestone.

This stunning five-story property spanning 10,000 sq ft boasts a grand foyer, parlor, library, wine room, wine cellar, media room, two kitchens with a service kitchen, dining room, roof deck, and passenger elevator.

The primary entrance is flanked by elaborately carved, banded columns inspired by late 16th century French architecture.

Currently empty (as of July 2023).
