Notes

Historic colonial cedar shaker style home, built in 1850 on approximately 3/4 of an acre. The house has an open plan downstairs with kitchen, living room, dining room, and separate bathroom; upstairs there are 3 bedrooms.

The property has a heated swimming pool, separate cottage in the backyard (which is a bedroom), a graveyard from 1700-1800s at the back of the property, and faces the Wertheim Wildlife Refuge. The entire property is surrounded by an evergreen hedge for privacy and has hundreds of flowering shrubs and trees that bloom at various times of the year.

Restrictions:

Requests to nail into walls must be approved in advance by owner; walls must be returned to original condition. No painting of walls.
