Notes

Modern Farmhouse sits on 33 secluded, bucolic acres of rolling meadows and forest with idyllic Hudson Valley views. The house, designed by a noted architect, was featured in the New York Times and sits among numerous farm buildings, including two barns, an enormous corn crib, chicken coop and a former ice house converted into a rustic cabin.

All of this is surrounded by numerous flower gardens, a fruit orchard and a very large vegetable garden.

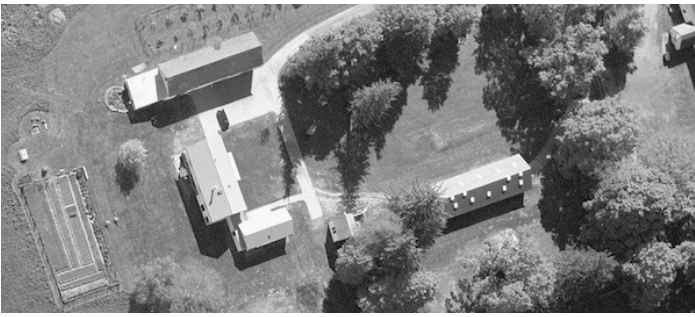

Restrictions:

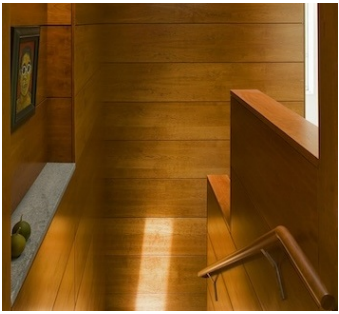

The house has a separate apartment which is off limits.

Request to paint or nail into walls must be approved in advance and walls returned to original condition upon project completion.

There is no air conditioning.
