Notes

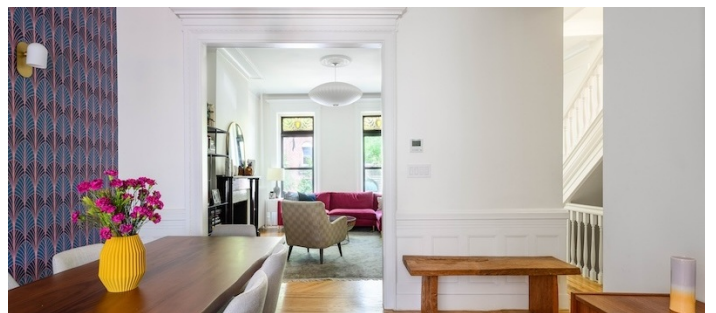

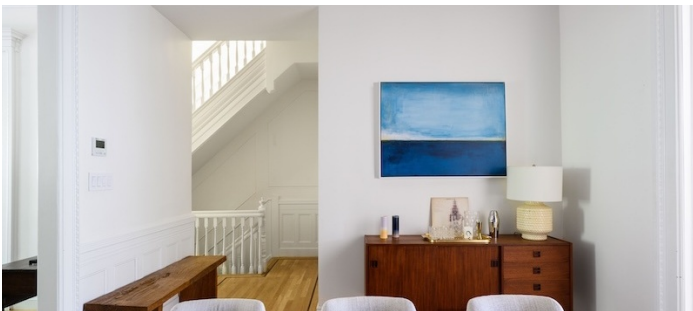

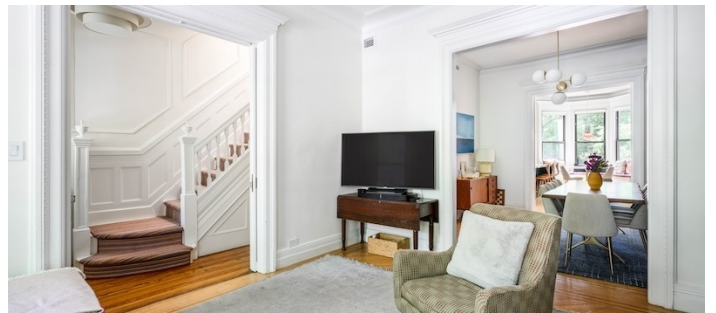

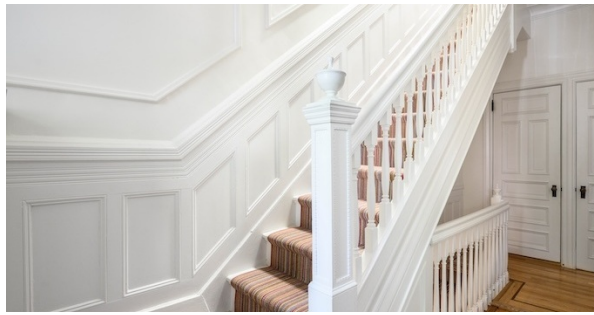

Three story brownstone in the heart of the Prospect Heights historic district. The house was built in 1910 and maintains a number of historic details including the original stain glassed windows and skylight. Modern touches were added with recent renovation, including central A/C throughout and an open chef's kitchen.

The parlor floor has 11' high ceiling with the living room, dining room and kitchen all connected. The top floor has 8' ceiling height, two bedrooms, walk-in closet, renovated primary bath and office. The ground floor has 8' ceiling height, two kids bedrooms and opens to the garden.
