Notes

Classic Brooklyn corner space offers 1,100 square feet at ground level with a floor-to-ceiling glass wall on one side and one very large window on another, giving way to light beams at all hours of the day.

A portable 9-foot photo backdrop is located in the back of the space, nearby to a dressing room and bathroom. Various curtain options for lighting and privacy make this space truly versatile.

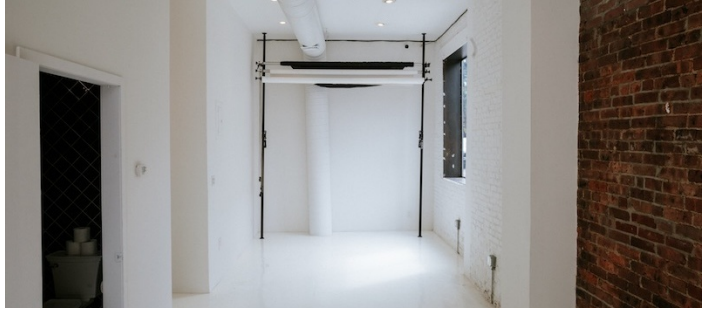

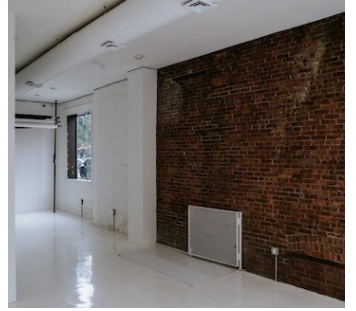

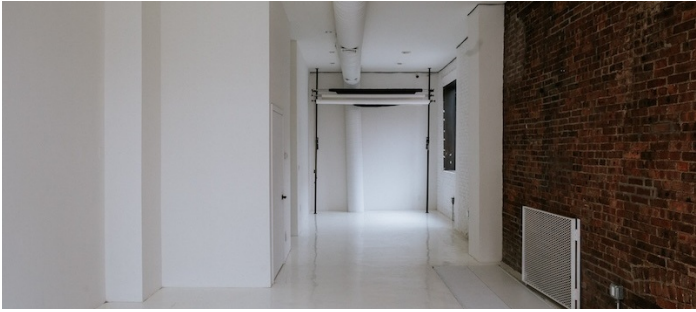

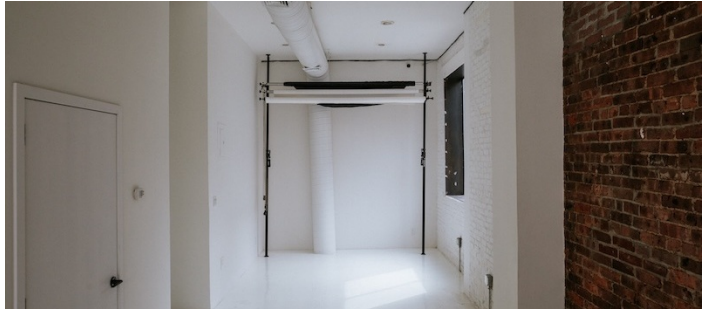

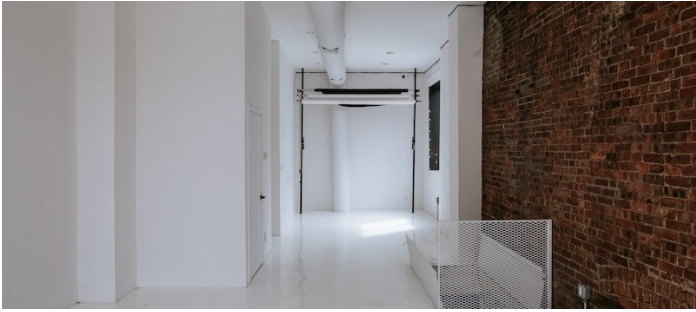

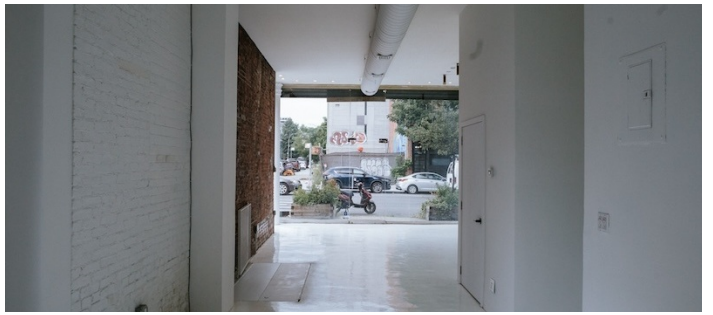

Features include: floor-to-ceiling glass facade with natural light, large window adjacent to backdrops with natural light, and white walls and floors with various textures.

Restrictions:

Limit of 50 people inside.

No activity allowed after midnight.

No painting of walls. No nailing into walls; OK to use pre-existing holes in walls.
