Notes

A mid-century modern time piece in beautiful Brooklyn Heights. The townhouse was built in 1921 and redesigned by a Swedish architect and his set designer partner in the late 60's.

The house have lime washed white walls and wood finish through the house. Double height ceiling on 1 and 3rd floor. A mirror box centering the 3rd floor.

Tons of light and a small little Japanese inspired garden with bamboo.

Restrictions:

No nailing into walls. No painting of brick walls.
